

Janet Mangus

ASEA Board Member

Janet Mangus started her career with First American Title as a receptionist in 1992 and worked her way up to Escrow Officer. In 1999 she graduated with a Bachelor of Science majoring in Information Systems and transferred to the Business IT Department and currently works as a Regional Technical Trainer. She joined the Arizona State Escrow Association in 2010 and earned her first designation when she became a Certified Escrow Officer in 2011.

She lives with her husband Dan, their children Anna and Sam and their dog Coco. When not working, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, going to movies, traveling and cooking.

