

Janette Waller

ASEA President

Janette Waller was born and raised in Chicago and prior to moving to Arizona, spent 10 years working as a real estate paralegal in Schaumburg, Illinois. In January 1992, after spending a week on vacation here in the Valley of the Sun, Janette gave a month's notice to the attorneys she was working for, sold her condo, packed her belongings in a U-Haul and drove to Phoenix.

After discovering that attorneys do not generally get involved in residential real estate transactions here in Arizona, she took a job as an Escrow Assistant for a title insurance company. She worked her way up through the ranks by first becoming an Escrow Officer and eventually moving on to managing a branch location. In 2001, Janette became an Area Manager for First American overseeing their branch operations in the Northeast Valley. In April of 2007, Janette became First American's Maricopa County Operations Manager. She has spent the last 18 years learning and building her career in the escrow industry and recently took and passed the test to receive the designation of Certified Senior Escrow Officer and Certified Escrow Instructor through the Arizona State Escrow Association.

Janette currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Arizona State Escrow Association and is a proponent of education for all of those that work in the real estate industry.

